

On November 12, 2014, the parties filed a stipulation, stating that a decision should be entered awarding compensation.

Respondent denies that Ms. Adams suffered any injury as a result of the flu vaccine administered to her on October 12, 2011, and denies that Ms. Adams death was a sequelae of her alleged vaccine-related injuries. Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as Appendix A. The undersigned finds the stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

The parties stipulated that petitioner shall receive the following compensation:

A lump sum of $175,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner as Personal Representative of the Estate of Gwendolyn D. Adams. This amount represent compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Stipulation ¶ 8.

The undersigned approves the requested amount for petitioner's compensation. Accordingly, an award should be made consistent with the stipulation.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
